Thursday 13th October Check out at around 10h00 *Le Quartier Francais http://leucollection.com/lqf/	Enjoy a leisurely breakfast and check out at 10h00, I will collect you and take you to Franschhoek stopping along the way in Stellenbosch for a mozy around the lovely town. We will also have time for some wine tasting at some wine farms. I will make time to visit the Car Museum. Please let me know what you fancy in terms of reds and whites or bubbly and also whether you would like a high end sort of lunch or a casual bistro sort of lunch or a South African Braai kind of lunch (BBQ). I will drop you off at your Hotel at around 16h30 so you can check in and make yourself at home. We should make some dinner reservations if you are keen to eat at some of the top Franschhoek restaurants, let me know!	R5 600 Per night B& B per room (Auberge rooms), I should be able to discount this a bit once I receive my Special Tour Operator rates Or R3 500 for my services and pay as you go for lunch and tastings
Friday 14th October	Enjoy the day enjoying your lovely accommodation and all that it offers and mozying around the quaint village of Franschhoek with it's lovely little shops and boutiques and art. You may wish to catch the Wine Tram, have a look at http://winetram.co.za/ I think we would need to book you on that.	R5 600 per night or R4 700 per room depending on which hotel you choose. Depends on what you do....
Saturday 15th October Sunday 16th October http://www.grootbos.com/ Grootbos Private Nature Reserve	I will arrange a transfer to Grootbos from Franschhoek for you (price to be advised) as it will be more cost effective for a local person to do it than me. Check in is at 14h00. All the following is included in the price for your two days there. This is quite an experience, please have a look at the website to get a feel for it but the following is included in the package: RATES ARE BASED ON FULL BOARD <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Accommodation in freestanding luxury suites - Welcome drink served upon arrival - Fresh fruit daily in suite - Light lunch - 5-course dinner - Breakfast buffet with full English breakfast menu - Horse riding for non- and experienced riders through the reserve (please note that the weight limit is 90kg/198lbs per person/ children under the age of 12 are only allowed on guided pony rides) - Guided Walks including fynbos nature tours and Milkwood walks - Nature, marine & coastal drives and walks including the Walker Bay Nature Reserve, De Kelders cliff walk, Klippgat Cave combined with seasonal land-based whale watching (whale watching especially during July – December) - Bird-watching; experience a great variety of bird species on the reserve - Various maps of the reserve and the area for self-guided walks 	Discounted rate of R5 450per person per night

	Transfers to/from all activities...Whale watching from Gansbaai or shark cage diving would be the activities to do...have a look at http://www.sharkwatchsa.com/ and http://www.sharkwatchsa.com/en/about-us/dyer-island-cruises/ For more info on these and I will book for you.
*Monday 17th October Depart at 11h00 http://www.auberge.co.za/ Auberge Burgundy Or The Marine Hotel http://www.collectionmcgrath.com/hotels/the-marine	I will arrange a transfer from Groot Bos to Hermanus in the morning so you can book into your new abode and relax and just soak up the atmosphere in Hermanus. There are lots of quaint boutiques and art galleries and a lovely book shop to browse in. The walk on the cliff top close to the hotel is a must, just stroll around and spot the whales (hopefully) but the walk itself is just beautiful. In the evening I think I should book you dinner at the Fisherman's Cottage, it is just lovely and pretty close to your hotel, particularly if you stay at the Auberge Burgundy. You can also visit the Old Harbour Museum, the Whale House Museum and De Wet's Huis Photo Museum	R3 200 i.e R1 600 per couple for the Penthouse 2 suite which comprises two bedrooms, lounge and balcony with stunning views and one bathroom Or R7 450 (discounted by 10%)per night per Luxury Double room with Sea View (per couple)
Tuesday 18th October	How do you fancy kayaking, possibly in the company of whales? http://www.walkerbayadventures.co.za/sea-kayaking.php (R400pp) If you do, I would suggest an early trip which departs at 09h00. If not perhaps we can enjoy a walk in the Fern Kloof Reserve just out of town. Thereafter we can explore the Hemel en Aarde wine valley (heaven on earth) where you can taste the famous Hamilton Russel wines amongst others and have a lovely lunch possibly at Creation, right on top of the hill. I will make a reservation at one of the other lovely restaurants in town for your last night.	R3 200 i.e R1 600 per couple for the Penthouse2 suite which comprises two bedrooms, lounge and balcony with stunning views and one bathroom R4 500 for my services including my accommodation.
Wednesday 19th October Check out at 10h00 or 09h00 if you prefer an earlier start so we have more time to do things	We will head down the stunning Clarence drive towards Cape Town, popping in at the Penguins at Stoney Point. If you like we could also visit the Harold Porter Botanical Garden. We can have a light lunch and make our way via Vergelgen if time permits as it is just stunning to the airport. I think I would need to get you there at 16h20	R4 000 for my services
